Sharon,

The news said we would be served today.
That hasn't happened as yet for me.

You need to know I am home, and have changed into my " comfy sloppy clothes" and removed my makeup. If I'm served at home this evening I may not make the best impression. I just wanted to make you aware.

further reports:

Julie McCormick once again defied my direction and spent time with juvenile CY . I met with Julie this afternoon with Pat Thomson present and probably came as close as ever to throwing a fit. Following my meeting with Julie, I completed a synopsis of this meeting that was sent to Julie and Pat Thomson. Pat was present in my office when I met with Julie. Julie Cloud and Karin were both sent the synopsis of this meeting.

Laura Roters reported that she overheard a conversation between Bill Morris (education staff) and Dave Winkler (teacher) talking about the law suit and how they were looking forward to the opportunity to get on the stand and testify. Neither of these two staff do I believe to be supportive staff. Laura confronted them both (sorry I can't really recall at this time just what Laura said to them both)

During a code this afternoon for a female juvenile struggling in Solutions, I was approached by Todd Inmann (Rehab Tech in O&A) Todd asked how I was holding up, to which I replied " I am fine Todd and thank you for asking" Todd responded " I want you to know I am praying for you".
