Here you go, Betty.

As you may be aware an Amended Complaint has been filed in the lawsuit. Please review the communication sent out by Monty Prow on June 26 regarding communications related to the pending lawsuit. I have attached a copy for your convenience. During visitation this weekend, if a parent or other visitor has any concerns regarding the safety of their child, please address the concern accordingly. You may also refer parents to the section of the Juvenile/Parent Handbook where the grievance procedures are described. If the parent indicates they do not have a handbook, please provide them another copy of the handbook.

Thanks to all of you for the work you do to keep our kids safe and secure.
